Employment History

Head of PRO (Student Org), Malta

June 2023 — June 2025

As the PRO of a student organisation, I created and managed all social media content and media design for events. I ensured consistent branding and engaging visuals to promote activities, boosting event visibility and audience engagement across platforms.

Social Media Design at Lito`s Place, Remote

October 2024 — December 2024

I created engaging videos and graphic designs for the Instagram account of a music recording studio, showcasing artists, behind-the-scenes content, and promotional material. My work focused on maintaining a consistent visual identity while enhancing the studio's online presence and audience engagement.

Intern at Arts Council Malta, Venice, Italy

July 2024 — September 2024

During my internship with the Arts Council Malta at the Arsenale Biennale in Venice, I worked as an Exhibition Assistant, supporting the maintenance of the exhibition space. In this role, I engaged with visitors by delivering informative presentations about the artworks and providing detailed explanations of the exhibition's themes. I was responsible for maintaining and caring for the displayed pieces to ensure their optimal presentation and preservation. Additionally, I collaborated closely with team members to enhance the overall visitor experience and contributed to the development of promotional materials to support the exhibition's outreach and visibility.

Server at Fior Di Latte, Mdina, Malta

April 2022 — June 2024

I served ice cream to customers while managing the inventory of available flavours to ensure smooth daily operations. In addition, I welcomed and interacted with visitors, creating a friendly and inviting atmosphere that contributed to a positive customer experience.

Intern at Luke Azzopardi Studio, Sliema, Malta

August 2020 — October 2020

I interned over the summer, organizing stock, assisting the head seamstress, and helping customers in the studio. I also supported the preparation for the "Psychopomps" Summer Collection fashion show, helping organise clothes and accessories for the models on the day of the event.

Education

Bachelor of Fine Arts
(Honours) in Digital Arts,
University Of Malta, Malta
October 2022 – June 2025

I hold a Bachelor of Fine Arts (Honours) in Digital Arts, where I developed a strong foundation in both traditional and digital media. My studies focused on areas such as visual communication, design, interactive media, and contemporary art practices, allowing me to explore creative concepts through a variety of digital tools and techniques.
